I remember every Father's Day or birthday I would always read papas cards to him. It was something I really liked doing and I'm really going to miss hearing him laugh whenever the card was read or whenever it was a sound card and he would just replay the song or noise.

Pawpaw, You will be missed by so many. You were a great man. Some of the best memories I have of you was during the holidays when you would try to make everyone laugh. You were always funny to be around, even if we were just sitting in your room watching t.v. I hope when you got to heaven God asked you at the gates, where you been, Buford!?!?" Can't wait to see you again someday. I love you pawpaw

Lewis where to begin? I was blessed to have known you for close to thirty years your never ending smile, ability to make people laugh no matter their mood, and how you always thought of others before yourself. I was fortunate enough to meet your daughter Tammy and become part of your family for all these years. You always treated me as if I was one of your sons. you raised your children to the highest moral standard because that was how you lived your life. I never met a person that did not like you. You were the real deal, honest, straight forward, and most of all when people met you they were getting the real Lewis never anything phoney about you. You may have been small in stature but you had the heart of a giant. We will miss you dearly and our hearts ache because we miss you so much but we are blessed with so many great memories to cherish until we all meet up again. Keep them laughing and on their toes up there in heaven until we meet again. Love Jeff

Pawpaw, I cannot express how much emptiness my heart feels without you here on this earth with us any longer. Even though you are no longer physically here with us, we all know that your soul will live on with us eternally. Now that your healed and resting in Heaven with our Lord watching down over us, it makes me thank God that you are no longer in so much physical pain. Just a few of my fondest memories with you would include watching wrestling, having a blast riding around Austell in that big orange van, and you always asking if we'd come from Buford! I miss you so very much Pawpaw, and until we meet again please watch over us and may you rest in peace forever. Love, Stevie

I got My sense of Humor and Work Ethic from Daddy. As many have mentioned His Humor, makes Me Smile just to read that. You will NEVER be forgotten. I will see You again Daddy.

I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Mr. Fain, but I have heard all about him. Celebrate the man and his memory.I heard a quote once, it said "God gave you this life because you were the only one strong enough to live it". I believe this. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
