Christopher Edmund DeBoulet

JUN 21, 2014

Christopher Edmund DeBoulet, age 75 of Powder Springs passed away June 2, 2014. He was born February 20, 1939 in Piparo, Trinidad, West Indies to Ceceilia Redhead and Francis DeBoulet. He was educated at Sisters Road E.C. School and later attended Presentation College in Trinidad. He became a police officer in Trinidad at the age of 23. Christopher later migrated to the United States in search for a better life. In the U.S he worked for Ideal Corporation, as a factory worker and manufactured airplane parts. Christopher was a strong advocate for education and believed that education was the only way that one could advance themselves in life. He loved all sports, but his personal favorites were Cricket and Bowling. For his dedication to the game, he was inducted into the Hall of Fame by the American Bowling Congress in 1995.

Christopher, affectionately known as "Panks" was a jovial man, who loved to laugh, yet was very private. He leaves behind his children: Martin Hall, Camille DeBoulet, Winston Waterman, Hiron DeBoulet, and Nicole Sirju-Johnson, his grandchildren: Abigail Hall, Chanelle and Jeffrey Bryant, John and Miriam Faustina, Celeste Waterman, Jean-Marc and Krysel DeBoulet, Jamar II and Jalen Johnson, two nieces, a nephew,, a host of cousins, and friends in the West Indies, The United States and Great Britain. .
