And Now We Say Goodbye
Great sadness fills our hearts today as pipes and drums, in slow march play.
A comrade's fallen by the way,
And now we say goodbye.
This hero to the very end
Was more than just a casual friend,
Who would a stranger's life defend,
And now we say goodbye
But we shall cherish, all our days,
The character this life portrayed
With sacrifice so freely made,
And now we say goodbye.
The hand salute, o'er Stars and Stripes,
And distant skirl of highland pipes,
Give last farewell with hero's rights,
And now we say goodbye.
While here on Earth, you gave your best.
Now in the Master's arms you rest.
T'is by your memory we are blessed.
And now we say goodbye.

To the family of Kevin; I have been having the pleasure to keeping up with Kevin through my son. I will ever treasure the elementary - high school relationships we shared with our children. Kevin would spend the night and he was family. He abided by the rules and was always respectful and loving. He and Chappy played on the basketball teams together as his father would take care of transporting the two of them. Christen you have been his loving sister as long as I've remembered. You, both, have been wonderful parents and loving friends. Thanks for all the memories. I will keep you in my prayers. (I hope to get with you when I am in Atlanta.) Zandra Hughes 727 489~8769

Jan and I would like to share a couple of memories of Kevin. We were fortunate to have met Kevin while visiting our daughter and her family at Dover AFB. Kevin was a very warm and sincere guy with a big smile and great handshake. We were there several times during the holidays so we shared a meal with him and some wonderful dishes he brought to the meal. Of course there was football on TV and we could discuss Georgia and Alabama football. It was always a pleasure to have him and Hunter spending time with the Zoellner family and Jan and I. Kevin did a good job of moulding Hunter into a polite young man. Hunter you stay strong and your always welcome to visit with us. Kevin will be missed by many and we feel fortunate to have known him even for the short time we did. Our condolences to his parents and all his family. Rod and Jan Brown Douglasville Georgia
