Frank was a good man, when he worked at Delta and Precision; he cared about people and tried to keep the turmoil down as much as possible. Sad at his passing but he must have been needed elsewhere. The world was a better place for his time here. May his family find comfort in his memories and the love they shared. Iola Govensky

Barbara Daniel-Wfc lit a candle in honor of Frank.

To The Satterfield Family Members: I feel your pain. Losing a Father, Grandfather, Husband is like losing a cornerstone of your Home. I know you will miss him, his humor, and just being there for all of you. Frank was the kind of guy you felt you have known all of your life. Remember the good times, nothing can take away the History and Memories You Shared Happy as a Family. He enjoyed the Social Events @ Wilkes Finance, and always had a smile, Remember the Smile and the Blue Satterfield Eyes that you now see in your Grandchildren. He will be missed by You All, I know!! He is in another World that we Cannot See, free of worry and pain, his work was finished, ours still remains. You will see Him in the Morning when it is our time to go. My heartfelt sympathy to you all. Barbara Daniel, co-worker Roberta Satterfield, Wilkes Finance HO.
