Polly Davis posted:

I remember Jack building a short ramp on our back door entrance so Mr. Davis could come and go in his wheel chair. Jack was always a gentleman and a devout Christian. I know you will miss him Joyce. I am sick and unable to attend the funeral but my thoughts and prayers will be with you, his children and other family members.

Jack was a wonderful man. I will miss being at the funeral because I am on sick leave from the funeral home. He always had a kind word for me. He was a good friend to Ernest Presnell which was my next door neighbor and they made cabinets together. Jimmy Lewis
