I miss you dearly, Grandma Pudd. You are the best grandma! I have learned so much from you that you taught me everything since I was a little boy. I will always remember your smile, laugh, and your best homemade chicken pot pie. Now, I am very deeply heartbreaking. I am very fortunate that I can flew down to Georgia to see you on Thanksgiving and hold your hands as long we want to. May rest in peace, grandma. You are now in God's hands and see your loved ones. I LOVE YOU, GRANDMA! Fox Family loves you!

Mamaw Pudd.... I was not ready for you to go yet.... but I know Little Pudd, Kim, and uncle Leroy were there waiting for you. I will never forget all of the wonderful things you have taught me over the many, many, full-filling years I have been your grand daughter. You are one of the few strongest women that I know of & I know that I will always carry you with me, cause we were like 2 peas in a pod. Your comfort to me sitting and sharing a glass of wine together and talking about everyday stuff, even down to sharing your make-up, fashion, & men tips with me & laying down on your bed with you watching Dale in his Sunday races. I love you soo much !!!!! Now be sure to tell them how the proper ways of doing things there in heaven cuz it just would not be the same & I sure hope they get the race channel there too ! lol ! Your memory will always be alive in me along with your spirit right by my side. I know there will be many times that I will cry and yet many more times of laughing reminiscing on the past. I love you dearly !!!! ~ Michelle

Betty was a wonderful sweet Lady that I worked with a Reed Drug Company when she was a Buyer and I was her secretary at one time. We shared some great times with all of our fellow employees.
