It's been a minute since I have seen Guy but will never forget his smiling face. He took care my husband Bill Rimmer's construction needs for years. What a dude and such a good friend, always helping those in need. I found out years later that we went to school with his children in S.W. Atlanta, what a small world. Bill left this world in June of 2011 to be with his Lord, never had anything but good to say about Guy Tillman. Rest in Peace friend, I'm sure Bill will be there to greet your smiling face at those pearly gates. Prayers and love for your family in their time of need. Ramona Millwood Rimmer

Guy Tillman was a friend...a true friend. He was the kind of man who would drop everything he was doing, day or night to help you. He was always there with a hearty laugh, a strong back to share the load, or the softest hug to comfort. As one of the ladies who had the privilege to be in his life, I always felt cherished and protected knowing I had knight on a white charger on my side. I believe the men in his life felt the same because Guy would stand shoulder to shoulder with them to help or place a hand on their shoulder in comfort and understanding, whatever was needed. Guy's passing is a loss to the earthly world of one of it's finest, but is a gain to the Heavenly World of a world class man. I am proud to have known him. My love and prayers to Phoebe and the entire family. Kay Kruger

Guy was a wonderful, loving Christian man. It was an honor to go to church and be in the same Sunday School class with him and his sweet wife Phoebie. I watched their kids grow into adults after they came to the church. Guy was a great friend who is going to be missed. Phoebie and kids, know that i love each one of you and miss seeing you. I can't come because I'm unable to drive now but you are in my prayers. God bless each one and comfort you. Patsy Shamblin

Guy was my big brother, no one could ask for a sweeter brother. Our dad traveled a lot, so I think Guy took it upon himself to be a second dad to me, always watching over me. He would carry me with him sometimes to visit friends or to get ice cream. When he left for the Navy, I felt so empty & cried for him for weeks. He wrote to me always reminding me to help & do whatever our mom asked of me. He was always telling me he had the most wonderful wife and family & how blessed he was. He loved The Lord with all his heart and told me on many occasions and especially in the last couple of years, when God sees fit to call me home, I'll be ready! Don't grieve for me or shed tears for me because I'm going to be in a much better place. Well my sweet brother, the tears & grief I feel are for me & how much I'm going to miss you. Time will help but I'll always miss you & I'll always see that big grin of yours & that's what I'm always going to remember. I Love You.

I have known Guy and Phoebe since we went to elementary school together in Sylvan Hills. We went to church together at Sylvan Hills Baptist Church while we were still in school. Then our families were boaters together when our kids were small. We have seen each other at the Sylvan High School Varsity gatherings in the last few years until health problems in both families prevented us from attending. In all of these years, I have loved and respected Guy and Phoebe and have known them to be one of the most loving and giving couples I have ever known. I know you all are going to miss him terribly but we know he is with our Lord and Savior and no longer in pain. I will be talking with you soon Phoebe and I wish we lived nearer to each other so that we could visit. Take care and know that I love you. Harriet Fretwell Johnson Newton
