A Tribute to our Mother, Joyce Witt Vaughn 08/17/1931 – 12/12/2017

One of the greatest legacies we can leave our family is to model the kind of love that leaves an enduring and everlasting impact upon the lives of others. This tribute is in honor of our mother, Joyce Witt Vaughn, who left such a legacy upon her four daughters.

Her life was memorialized each and every day by her devout love for Jesus Christ and through her countless acts of selfless love and devotion toward others. We witnessed Christ's love through the deep relationships she has nurtured and shared throughout her life. We have seen family and friends come with offerings from their heart towards her that have been the most genuine evidence of His heart.

One of our mother's deepest devotions was her love for the Church. To memorialize her desire to grow His Kingdom, we invite you to gather with your own families and attend a Church service together during this Christmas season. It would be our mother's upmost joy that if any do not know Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior that you may experience His unconditional love.

We thank and honor you, our dear precious mother for living your life for His glory.

Love you more,
Your Daughters

A Celebration of Life Service honoring Joyce will be held Saturday, March 10, 2:00 PM at the First Baptist Church of Mableton, 5385 Church St SW, Mableton, GA 30126.

What a beautiful tribute to your Mother!. Denise, Donna, Debra and Dana, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. I had the honor and privilege of knowing Joyce about 63 years ago as our families were at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church and through events and activities with her dear younger sister, Brenda. Joyce was the sweetest kindest person I've ever met. I will always remember her beautiful smile and loving spirit. We attend many Bible Studies together over the years and most recently church for many years at MFBC. I think I remember the birth of each of her beautiful daughters. . And I say so often now "We will always miss our Mothers". There is no more suffering, no more pain and Joyce has joined the host of others who are waiting to see us all again one day..

Rately does a person physically radiate joy, but your mom did. She wants one of the sweetest people I've ever known, and she was completely selfless. When I would see her at church and wanted to ask about you guys, she was asking me about my daughters first. I think we shared that "Mom of 4 Daughters" bond. :) My heart is broken for you, but your love of God, your love for each other, and your sweet memories of your Mom will see you through. Love to you all!!! Kim Daniell-White

Loosing a mother is a great loss, no one will ever love us like a mom. Joyce was one of the warmest, most caring people I've had the pleasure of knowing. She was beautiful on the inside and out. I feel truly blessed to have known and loved her. She will certainly be missed, but knowing she is in a better place, makes me smile. I'm so sorry for your loss and my prayers and thoughts are with you all. I will gather my family together and attend a church service in honor of her. Love you all, Sandi

I am so truly sorry to hear of Joyce's passing. Denise, Donna, Debra and Dana, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. I pray for your comfort and peace. I had the honor and privilege of meeting Joyce almost 33 years ago when my son and Denise's son Bran became fast friends at nursery school. Joyce was the sweetest kindest person I've ever met. I will always remember her beautiful smile and loving spirit. She passed that on to her beautiful daughters. I know you will miss her terribly. She will always live on in your hearts and precious memories. Heaven truly gained a beautiful angel. I know she is up there, no suffering, no pain and she is smiling down on all of us. Thank you Lord for your grace and mercy and thank you for the honor of being able to know her. Sincerest condolences, Laurie, Steve and Stephan Friedman
