Laura,I wanted to pass along my deepest sympathies on Jimmy's passing. Though I never got to know Jimmy well, I know he must be a heck of a guy because you are one heck of a girl.Just think Jimmy is up there talking with some of our shared heros (Duane, Berry, Jimi, et al). I'd like to think so.Hang in there! See you at the race in the Fall if not before.##imported-begin##Joe Halpin##imported-end##

Dear Laura,My heart goes out to you in a sincere way during this most difficult time. I was shocked and deeply saddened, while thinking of you, when I heard of Jimmy's passing. Thank you so much for having Charlie call me.I know you loved Jimmy so much and you were very close. Your love was obvious as his name came up often in our conversations.I've been thinking of you everyday and my prayers will continue that God will provide you, Heather and Kim with His comfort and strength as you strive to carry on. I can only imagine your most deepest grief and pain of loss, but please know that God doesn't give us more than we can handle with His help and there are many people who care and love you and will continue to be there for you.May God be with your family in a very special way during this time.Sincerely yours,Mark Gazan##imported-begin##Mark Gazan##imported-end##

Jimmy (aka "J.R.") was my my dear friend, my best friend's (Laura) protector, an incredible father to his daughters, an incredible son and son-in-law, and most of all, a soulful heart. He came into my life through another tragedy over 14 years ago, however I feel he's been my friend forever. Jimmy's love for family and friends is unescrivable in words that we all can understand. Devotion was Jimmy's strongest quality but his compassion for life is his legacy. I love him like a brother and will always ask for his guidance until I see him again.
