I will miss you so very much Daddy - Everything your illness wiped away has been restored in Heaven and you will be whole once more. Eat all the icecream, chocolate, potatoes, and cookies you want Daddy. Play with your twin great-grandbabies for us as we never got a chance - you and Mom play with them til your heart is content. Say hello to your Mom, Dad, Brother, all of our Grandparents, Olga's Brother, and all of our friends that have passed over. May God keep you in his grace forever more. With all my love - Michelle##imported-begin##Michelle Curran_Caubo##imported-end##

We called him "Henri" (as I have always known him) and have called him by his original name since 1945 when he left France for Holland. I admire him for having lived through WW II and the loss of his parents and brother Josy. His father died in a concentrationcamp resisting the Nazis. He served with the Dutch Navy in the Dutch East Indies in the late forties and was awarded a Medal. He was a very nice person and it is a privilege to have known him. I will always remember "My conversations with Henri". The Lord will smile when you arrive up there...##imported-begin##Harry and Josie Caubo (Cousin).##imported-end##
