November she again exercised her voting right, casting an absentee ballot from her bed where she spent the last six months of her life. Another highlight of Mary's later years were her high school reunions which began in 1990 with the 50th anniversary of her graduation. Later she also attended the OK Elementary School reunions. She looked forward to these two reunions each year.

Mary's cremains will be interred beside her late husband, William at Mimosa Cemetery in Lawrenceburg, TN, at a later date.
