My heart hurts for you during this time of loss. Uncle RL - a favorite relative of mine, I loved his witt and how he shared his knowledge of everything he stood for, and I honor him for who he was and is in my memories. I know, as you do, that he is in a much better place, and that the loss of a parent is very hurtful. Heaven's gain is our loss. I wish I could be there with you personally, but know my prayers and thoughts are of and with you. May God bless each of you with comfort as only He can.
