Hi my friend;I am so very sorry to hear about your loss. However, I know that you serve and know a Lord that knows all and he will comfort you and be there with you at all times and so will your family and friends. But God needed another good soldier and Benny was the perfect fighter so he chose him on Thursday, November 12th to go home to his new mansion. For we know that we are on loan by God so know that throughout your ordeal, Benny is surely in good hands and he's smiling down on you and the children - saying all is well. I know you will miss him but you will find comfort in knowing that he's still here with you in spirit. Be blessed and I am here for you for whatever you need from me -- I've always had a special love for you and it never stopped my friend, hang in there and keep your faith. I love you!##imported-begin##Demetra Richardson##imported-end##

Carole, My heart goes out to you. I know that Bennie was a very important part of your life for many, many years, and I pray that God gives you peace and guidance in the days to come. I can only imagine how much Bennie must have loved you and appreciated your loyalty and compassion, especially as you gave so tirelessly of yourself the last few years to give him the care that only you could give. You are an amazing woman, and I'm so glad that Bennie got to spend his life with you. I'll hold on to my fun memories of the good ole days when all was well and you and Bennie treated me like your third kid at my home away from home, and I'll miss him and love you always. Stacy, I have so many fun memories of Bennie from our wild and crazy middle school and high school days. He always made me feel welcome at your house, and I got a kick out of his energy and intensity. It was obvious that you two shared a deep love, even when you drove each other a little nuts! I know that you will miss your dad, and so will I. I love you, friend. XOXOXO##imported-begin##Stacey Murphy##imported-end##
