My prayers and condolences go out to Steve's family (especially his kids) during this time of loss. It is my hope that Candice and Steven can find peace knowing that Steve is at rest and that the love they have for each other will carry them through this difficult time. May God be with them always!###imported-begin##Bobby Newsome###imported-end##

My heart and thoughts are with all Steve's family and friends who have went thru such a hard and trying time and left with so many questions unanswered. Steve will be missed by so many but what saves us all is knowing we will all meet again and knowing Steve is with our Father and his family and friends who went before him. May Father bring you all comfort and peace in knowing he is not gone far from you and he is at peace. God Bless Nanny###imported-begin##Linda Cochran###imported-end##
