Marilyn and family, There are certainly no words that can take away the grief you are all feeling now. But how wonderful that AI was surrounded by the presence and love of his family during his final days on this earth. Jack and I think of AI as a "Gentle Giant" - soft spoken yet firm in his faith and concern for others. We will remember AI as a dedicated deacon of the church, a devoted husband and father, a friend to many and a great lover of books. Although miles away, our thoughts and conversation have been of you. Much love, ML##imported-begin##ML and Jack Kellner##imported-end##

We loved Uncle AI so very much. We will remember his jokes, and smiles and laughter. He always tried to be an understanding Uncle, never a harsh word to us. We will always think of his laughter while he is in heaven looking upon us and looking after family. Much love to Aunt Marilyn, Jen, Laura, and Chris.
