Linzay Richburg

MAY 21, 2010

Mr. Linzay Richburg, age 20 of Marietta, was killed in car accident May 21, 2010. A native of Atlanta, Ga., Lidzay moved to Staten Island, NY last year to help care for his maternal grandmother, Willa Cuestas. He was employed as an inventory manager for Home Depot. Loved ones remember Linzay as always having a smile on his face and willing to help family and friends in need. "He was a beautiful person," said his sister, Taryn Black."Anyone that met hime loved him". From an early age he had an interest in music, from hip hop to house to classic rock. He previously attended Full Sail College, Orlando, FL, majoring in production engineering. He planned to continue studying music production this fall. Linzay is survived by his mother, Patricia Cuestas Dube of Brothers, Corey Richburg and P. J. Kollar
Sister, Taryn Black
Grandmothers, Lucille Fulton
And Willa Cuestas of New York.
