The good Lord seen fit to send you into our life, and for that I am forever grateful. you have been a constant form of stability and strength in my eye's. I will for-ever remember the fun, laughter, and Navy stories... I was blessed for 48 years with your understanding, and your quiet ways of teaching us the right way, to do and go. You are now with your sweet wife, our granny, healthy, bright eyed, and that beautiful smile that you both have..... you will Never be forgotten your mark is etched in my heart for life. I will see you, granny and my children one day. until then, rejoice in the love of our Lord and hug them all for me... I love you! Terri Ann##imported-begin##Terri##imported-end##
