I miss my little sister! I miss her laugh, I miss her voice & her telling me what to do :) most of all I'll miss her loving hands. I also want to thank the multitude of people who came to the Celebration of her Life. Each one of you had a special sparkle in your eyes when you spoke of her. I could see before you said anything, my little sister had touched your lives in a special way, too.##imported-begin##Carroll Adams##imported-end##

To my friend David,I only met Kathy once but she was one of those rare people you never forget. I am not comfortable around people I don't know but that wasn't the case with her. She made it easy to be around her. She was warm and bright, easygoing and relaxed and she made those around her feel welcome and important. It was easy to be her friend from the moment you met her.##imported-begin##Murl Moody##imported-end##
