How I LOVED "Sweetie" and how he lived up to his name. I have such wonderful memories at Austell First Baptist of him and with your family. I know he will missed but Heaven has now become even a 'sweeter' place. I know we all look forward to seeing that priceless smile and hear that classic laugh again. We are praying for each of you and love you all!##imported-begin##Jane Wyatt Harbin##imported-end##

Sweetie was such a wonderful man, he will be missed so much, my son Michael loved him so much because sweetie was so kind to him, Mike would make sure he was at the top of the driveway on Sunday morning because he said the mr Sweetie was going to let him open the bus doors for him. We are all truly blessed by getting to know this wonderful man. We will miss you Sweetie, rest in piece.##imported-begin##Mary Ellen Renfroe##imported-end##

What a dear man Sweetie Mitchell was! He was a "stand out" at First Baptist Austell for as long as I can remember. It always felt mighty good to go in church and see his smiling face and his genuine kindness to all. You never forget people like Sweetie. He was a great man with a great family! My love and prayers to all of you.

Such a sweet (he had such a fitting nic-name) man. Many Sunday mornings in Childrens church were spent with this amazing man of God. I was lucky enough to get to spend many more moments with him since Carlee and I were such good friends...such a sweet family! I love you all!
