Death is natural as life and all of us must deal with the death of a loved one at some point in our lives. On October 22, 2011, my cousin Wendy expired. As a youth, she inspired me to do right. The mark she left, no one can steal. Today, I've embrace that mark and allowed the tears to flow.....RIP Wendy.##imported-begin##Sharon Atkins##imported-end##

My Dear Sister Wendy, God knew you were tired and it was time for you to rest... I know exactly where you are right now and I am happy .. you are FINALLY relaxing on a that sunny porch drinking your third glass of Manischewitz with mummy, daddy, Aunt TT, mummy Dar, Niles and Cecil cracking jokes about me & Sybil and the rest of the crazy family! I know you're not alone ... they were waiting for you with open arms. See you soon big sis and for the love of God - save some Manischewitz for me!###imported-begin###Avril Daniel###imported-end##

The bible tells us that when Jesus comes again death will be no more. It is written in 1 Corinthians 15: 52, 54, 55, "In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall be sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed... So when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is they victgory?" I look forward to that day, friends, when loved ones will be reunited and death will be no more.##imported-begin##Racquel Bowman##imported-end##
