I never did get to know Wanda really well at Grace, she was such a quiet and beautiful lady. However, I had the honor of working with her beautiful daughter, Joanna before retiring from Wellsar and I imagine Joanne reflected her Mom's grace and compassion. Wanda I know everyone who passed thru your life will miss seeing your smile.##imported-begin##Linda Skinner##imported-end##

I first met Wanda 11 years ago when she joined us here at S.P Richards Co.It was obvious from the beginning that she was a kind, considerate, God-loving woman. She became my friend. I would often go to her to share a prayer-burden knowing that she would help pray. I will certainly miss her. To her family, I pray God's ever-present peace will flood your hearts continually.##imported-begin##shelia dodgen##imported-end##

Rusty and Family: I am so sorry to hear that Wanda has gone from your lives. What a sweet person she was. Many years ago when I first worked with her at the Amway Corp., then working with her at SP Richards, she never changed. She loved her family! I will continue to keep you in my prayers.
