Luis Alphonse Lovell

OCT 14, 2019

Luis Alphonse Lovell, 50, son of the late Sidney Alphonso Lovell and Carmen Maria Lovell was born on November 6, 1968. At the age of 14 he professed his faith in Jesus Christ. Luis attended St John's College and would later graduate high school from Duke Ellington School of the Arts in 1986. Luis received vocal scholarships to both Catholic University and Howard University.

He would spend a year at Howard University where he was introduced to "Black Excellence". He auditioned and joined the Howard University Gospel Choir, in Washington, DC. In 1988, Luis accompanied the Eastern High School Choir on tour to Vienna Austria, where they competed and won 2nd Place in a world-wide choral festival. He lent his beautiful tenor voice as a soloist on that tour. Luis became a member of Joshua's Temple Church in Washington, (Bishop Thson Rowe, Pastor) where he and his mother served. Luis served as a soloist and an Ordained Deacon before his elevation to Ministry.

He joined the Metropolitan Police Department where he served as a patrolman and as a Sergeant at the 6th District. He exhibited great focus and commitment to building a career with the Police Department. He was able to realize the best opportunities for his family. He took great pride in sharing his gifts which enabled him to elevate to Desk Sergeant. He also served as a communicator and speech writer for his District. He retired from the police department after his cancer went into remission.

During his time as a policeman Luis was an active member of his church, loyal to his ministries and extending his heart to his church family. He was a member of the Alfred A. Owens Chorale and a founding member of the Men's Praise Team at Greater Mount Calvary Holy Church. He would graduate from Calvary Bible Institute.

Luis moved to Atlanta, GA where true to his ministry and his faith, he became instrumental in the church's leadership roles. He would soon find a beautiful life and church family at Grace Church International in Atlanta, GA (Bishop Johnathan E. Alvarado, Sr. Pastor & Dr Toni G. Alvarado, Co Pastor).

Vienna Sings Praise of Choir

Eastern High Places Second at Festival

By Robert J. McCartney
Washington Post Foreign Service

VIENNA, July 21—The District of Columbia's Eastern High School Choir today won second place among school mixed choruses at the world's most prestigious international youth music festival.

The choir's success climaxed a 10-month city and national fund-raising effort that collected more than $160,000 so the 54 student singers from one of the Washington area's poorest high schools could travel to the International Youth and Music Festival in Vienna.

"It's like dying and going to heaven," said bass Aaron Blyther, 17.

The choir, which has won two straight U.S. high school gospel singing championships, had to master classical music for the festival and sing required compositions in German and Latin.

Most of the students never had traveled abroad before, and some had never ventured farther from Washington than King's Dominion amusement park in Virginia, choir members said.

"We're taking back something to Washington to show that the money that people raised for us was worth it," said choir president and soprano Fredericka Gordon, 18.
