I will never forget my first meeting with Mrs Louison. She walked up with such grace and shared a word of wisdom to my soul in which i still value and hold dearly until this day. She told me she was grateful no matter what. Whether she had little, or whether she had alot. She woke up thankful every day for health and life. Mrs Louison was a woman that I know loved God. Those words really started speaking to me, and believe it or not every morning it has caused me to wake with the same attitude. Mrs Louison I am forever grateful for that attitude you had and I know you are walking with your robe of righteousness, your crown, and a palm in your hand because you have overcome this world and received your reward. Enjoy His presence until we meet again.
