John George was my Daddy's brother and I grew up knowing him as Uncle JT. He had the same sense of humor my Daddy did. They could always find some humor in anything and always had a smile for everyone. They both loved their family and were very proud of their children. Uncle JT will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Our hearts go out to Johnny, Henry and Miriam. We hope you know you are loved by family and friends. With deepest sympathy. Mr. George was the father of my best friend, Henry. I was able to meet and visit with him on several occasions. I knew immediately where Henry got his great sense of humor and kind disposition. He was so hospitable and showed me great kindness. Hearing a few stories of raising children in the 50's and 60's was quite interesting. The span of his life was amazing! Rest in peace Mr. George and thanks for everything.
