I love you so much Jamie my heart feels so heaving right now i keep remembering when we were kids the fun we had making go carts, playing run outs till it got dark playing crocodiles in the water between the rugs mum had down on the floor, and even when we got older we remained good friends when you moved out of home for the first time we would always meet up and have fun times you were always so much fun to be around.You were my big brother and always protected me and made me feel safe i could always count on you,you gave me courage and guidance through the difficult times in my life. Why has god taken a heart so true and a smile so kind!!!!!!I will always keep you close to my heart but for right now i will struggle to cope with you not being here with us. The last time we spoke you told me how proud of me you were and i will always try to do things to make you proud. Please watch over me and walk beside me my truly amazing brother With all my love Krusty xxxxxxxxx

A little tribute true and tender, just to show that we remember. Time may pass and fade away but memories of you will always stay. God saw you was getting tired and recovery was not meant to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered come with me. One more angel in heaven One more star in the sky. RIP Jamie

Jamie I cant believe you are gone, no amount of words can express how sad i feel. You lit up a room, had the most infectious smile and a heart of gold. Family was the most important thing to you! You were and always will be an amazing and loving man. You were my first love and i cherish the 3 years we had together. I met you outside Mcdonalds one night, i collapsed and you took me home and made sure i was ok, a year later we moved in together. I smile with all the wonderful memories you have given me like every christmas you were determined you had to watch old movies and buy a real christmas tree even if it meant we had to Hoover the needles up everyday, when you took me on holiday to Brighton and hid £10 on top of the wardrobe and pretended you found it and When you took me to Derngate theatre with your mum & dad. You always made me and others feel so special. I remember When you just used to turn up in your Orion with a smile and flowers. your collection of rocks and your love for Canada, the fact you helped deliver 12 kittens, you were always there for me and others, always. You used to love going to muswells and having a good dance, making our selves ill with several helping of ice cream, flake and jelly all those wonderful memories & conversations and more i shall hold on to forever. Our paths went sepearate ways for few years then crossed again, i am so glad i got to see you again Jamie, my first love, my dear friend. I will always love you Jamie....."If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane, I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again" michelle xxx

jamie wentwoth
 Fly, fly little wing
 Fly beyond imagining
 The softest cloud, the whitest dove
 Upon the wind of heaven's love
 Past the planets and the stars
 Leave this lonely world of ours
 Escape the sorrow and the pain
 And fly again
 Fly, fly precious one
 Your endless journey has begun
 Take your gentle happiness
 Far too beautiful for this Cross over to the other shore
 There is peace forevermore
 But hold this mem'ry bittersweet
 Until we meet
 Fly, fly do not fear
 Don't waste a breath, don't shed a tear
 Your heart is pure, your soul is free
 Be on your way, don't wait for me
 Above the universe you'll climb
 On beyond the hands of time
 The moon will rise, the sun will set
 But I won't forget
 Fly, fly little wing
 Fly where only angels sing
 Fly away, the time is right
 Go now, find the light will miss u so much jamie u will always be a brave man in my heart until we meet again all my love stacey xxxxxxxxx

Jamie, our brother, our friend, our guide, i could never imagine that you would have to leave us so soon. You were mum's rock and her only son, you kept us all strong through the tough times in our lives. You were an amazing bother, son and friend, you were loved by everyone your presence was felt in every step you took, you always made everything fun. You will leave an empty space in all our lives, we will miss you so much and love you dearly. You were a very special man and we will carry you close to our hearts forever until we meet again someday x x x I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new, I thought of you yesterday and the day before that too. I think of you in silence and often speak your name. All I have are the memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part. God has you in his keeping I have you in my heart. If loved could have saved you, you would have lived forever, sleep peacefully Jamie xxx Love always Kirsty, Mum and Samy-Jo xxxxxxxxxxxx

Jamie, I cannot believe you are gone. I keep expecting you to walk down the stairs or through your door to give your mates a hard time ... to tell your mother to stop worrying and to ask me where the kids are. It's so incredibly hard to think that we will not see you here on this earth. I promise you that the kids will go to England as often as I can get them there. I will tell our kids stories of you and share your love of the Foo Fighters and Proper Football. Please look over our Children. Thank you for giving me the most wonderful, beautiful, intelligent kids ... Our children have touched so many lives with there personalities and manners. And I have you to thank for that. I love you, Jamie and I will always hold a special place for you in my heart.

Jamie, I dont know how to feel.... I wake up every morning and have to remind myself that you are no longer here with us. I dream about you every night. Those past seven weeks were so rough but I will never regret a single minute of it. The nights that were spent at the hospital, the meals that were eatten out of vending machines. Those nights we spent at the house watching movies and seeing who would cry first at extreme home make over. I have come to realize what an important role you played in my life. You were as close to an older brother I think I will ever have. You were the one who taught me to drive, the one to play hide and go seek with me, my confidant, the one who I felt really understood what I was going through as a teenager. I will miss you so much, Jamie. I will never be able to see a dragonfly without thinking of the strength it gave all of us. There are so many things I wish I would of been able to express when you were still sitting on the couch next to me. I promise to try and be as good of a role model for Madeline and Michael as you were for me. I promise to try and live life with a sense of humor. You, Jamie, were one of the best men that I knew. I love you and will always hold memories of you close to my heart. ~Jaq Jaq
