(From Brad Jenkins - Mableton, Ga): "Steve was obviously a kindhearted & caring man to practically anyone he ever knew, met, or even 'slightly' cared about (even from what I always witnessed from afar) - but also to just about anyone (including a complete stranger) who was only fortunate enough themselves to be able & truly 'experience' Steve's unique 'gift' for affinity, even if only for a brief moment in time. And yet, somehow still, he was not only blessed with such a rare & unique 'gifted soul' that was so gentle & serene - but it was simply beyond compare. Though be that as it may, for someone as so soft-spoken as Steve, so serene, & further yet, with so 'few' tangible words to offer or propound: his overall benevolence and prominent trademark 'smile' alone - could only speak 'countless' volumes, in 'countless' languages, and probably changed no telling how many 'countless' lives, again - even if only for a brief moment in time...."
