To Bill and family, Louise and I are heart-broken over your loss. We hear her singing "Sheltered in the arms of God", and that's exactly where she is. She was such a precious friend, and, our Sister in Christ. Old age and creaking bones may not allow us to be with you in fact, but, our hearts and love are both with you. God Bless and keep you. Bobby and Louise Clark.

Other than her constant generosity of heart, two of the sweetest moments I'll remember were her reaching out for a hug when she heard my voice, and when she broke out into that beautiful smile and wiggled her toes, as Irma and others sang her favorite hymn. I'll love you Always Delores, Regina and Family
