First, I would like to say to the family, that you have our deepest sympathy 🙏. "Robby" as we affectionately called him, was loving, kind, smart, energetic, and talented. Time he got to the house and before he left, he would make it his business to give his Aunt Andrea and me a hug. But, Lord have mercy on me when he got to a playground! He was turnt'-up! He could every trick of the trade on the monkey bars, and my job was to make sure that he didn't hurt himself. There are so many of those instances, and we miss those good old days, and most certainly will miss Robby. Make your mark in glory nephew, I'm sure Jesus is enjoying and loving on you. Pastor / Uncle Parett "PT"
