He was my "daddy John" as my mom playfully called him. I have never met anyone with such a beautiful spirit in my life I was honored to be a part of his life for the short time I was and there are no words that can be said to console his family and friends for his passing..

John was Andrews and my, one person we considered a real friend. He was loyal, honest, and thoughtful. He gave me more hell than anyone we know but he always kept us laughing. He was such a kind soul and he will forever be loved and missed. Until we meet again my dear friend.
