My Big Daddy was the best grandfather I could have ever asked for. He truly was an amazing man. He always put others before himself. He always took the time to play with us when we were younger and always made us feel special. This is a very hard time for me right now, but I know he is not suffering anymore and my grandmommy met him at the gates. I will love you forever Big Daddy. Xoxo.

So sorry to hear of Bill's passing. We enjoyed the special times we were in Panama City next door to Bill and Glenda. Bill loved to talk about his experiences and we felt so blessed to get to know him. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family at the difficult time.
