I knew her as Miss Alicia Davis. She and I were friends in middle school and high school. We had to walk home from Floyd Middle School. Alicia made my days a lot brighter when she walked beside me during those times. I always wished she lived further down in the Mableton neighborhood so she could walk with me a little longer. She was a sweet girl and a good friend. Now she is walking along the shores of Heaven with Jesus. I will see her there to walk beside her again. Lucinda Davis Helton
