“ To my wonderful cousins, I am so, so sorry to hear about my Aunt Ann. I am sure she and my father are looking down from above watching over us!! I had such fond memories of her when she visited in Spain, and again when she came to El Paso. I'll never forget how she let me borrow a pair of her pants (and they were really cool!!!) to go to a discotheque in Madrid. I also remember having some really tasty Margaritas in Old Mesilla, NM when she came to visit with my Mom and Dad. I wish I could be there on 04/09, but I will certainly be there in spirit. Love you all, Ann Gillis Canales

“ The minute I met Ann I knew she was someone I would admire. She laughed easy, openly adored her daughters and welcomed me not as a stranger but a friend of her daughter Susan . Every meeting after that was always a learning experience on how to grow older with panache. How she managed to always look so together drove me insane that she could throw on a scarf and look elegant. Like all mothers I'm sure at times she drove her daughters crazy but that's what mothers are for. She will leave huge space in the lives of all the people privileged to know her.
