“ Marty & Terri, I am so sorry for your loss. It's so hard losing someone you loved so much! Ms. Belle she was a sweet lady! I always enjoyed being around her and getting hugs from her!! She was my nanny's best friend Mary Bruton. I know they are catching up in heaven. I am praying for you guys. I love you both very much!!!! Phil 4:13

“ Dearest Marty and Danny: I was so sad to learn of Maw Maw's death. I wish I could be there today to honor Anna Belle's life; but, unfortunately, I cannot make it down to Atlanta. Please know that I will be thinking of you at 11:00am. I have such fond childhood memories of spending every weekday and many nights with your parents. Anna Belle had that way of making each child feel special and so loved. I think of her so often as many things I do each day, I learned from Anna Belle. I thank you both for sharing your mother with so many others to whom she also made such a positive impact. She will certainly be missed; but I know she is happily monitoring the playgrounds of heaven!!!

“ Dear Danny, Marty, and family--
I knew and loved your wonderful mother many years ago. Some of my fondest memories are of her, you, and memorable times shared in your home and at Mt. Harmony Baptist Church, especially with the young people's group. She will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Our Anne Belle . What can I say that would be fitting of such a loving , caring and jolly beautiful lady. She meant the world to me and to Steve and Sid. Daddy held her close in his last years and she cared for him and did all of the special things that a sister could do. There are few like her. There is a joyful celebration in heaven as they all reunite . I am smiling through my tears at all of the wonderful people who are together. Your Dad was also favorite of mine , also.We are lucky to have had them for the time we have had. Love you all cousins. We must remember to live the way they did. She took me down memory lane many times. Sharon

“ Dear Marty and Terri,
We were so sorry to hear about your Mom. Anna Belle was always so sweet and nice to me. I remember she was always the first person there to help when anyone needed her. She was a special lady. Our prayers are with you and Danny.
Love, Peggy

“ Marty and family, so sorry for the loss of your mother, but so happy knowing where she is now! Loved Anna Belle, she was a lady I remember from my beginning. She was like a cousin to my Morris family. A dear friend, we will all miss her, especially my Mama.
Love and God Bless all of you

“ Marty, We are so sorry to hear about your mom. She meant so much to us and was a vital part of our life. She was a second mom to Paige. We will be unable to make the funeral due to prior commitments, but our hearts and tears are with you and your family. We all loved Anna Belle and will always remember her.
