“ Jerry,

I'm so very sorry to hear of your loss. I know you took great care of Beverly for many years. She was lucky to have such a great and caring husband. I hope all is going well for you personally. I'm still in the trenches at the Parole Board. Take care!

“ Bill,
Not knowing your mom, (but knowing you), I assumed she was a special lady. I think my assumption was correct after reading the kind words, special memories, and heart felt sorrow shared about her here.

My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart,
and my portion for ever.
Psalm 73:26

“ Craig & I send you our love & condolences for the loss of your mother. I know the last few weeks were a great struggle for her but we serve an awesome God who now holds Mimi in His arms & loves her like no one else can! May the happier moments of her life sustain you through the months to come. She lives on in you Leslie because you look just like her!

All my love, Julie

“ Dear Leslie and Family,

I am so sorry to learn of your mother's passing. I know this is a very hard time for all of you. This moment in your life brings me to the same moment in my life, nearly 12 years ago when my dad died. Time eases the pain and sweetens the memories. I pray for you daily.

Much love, Linda

“ Jerry, Leslie and other family members:
We were saddened to hear of your loss of Beverly. She was such a fine lady and always a joy to be around. We want you to know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. When your heart is empty, filling it with happy memories can help you find your smile.
God bless you and be with you during this sad time and in the future.

“ Dear Jerry, Jerry Jr., Bill, Leslie, and the entire family,

God must have a special place for Beverly. I think that's why he called her home. No more suffering; no more pain. God must have been pleased with the kind of person she was and how she lived her life. He knew she loved each and everyone of you. He knows about these things. He knows when people are good and when they love others.

Those of us who have come to know her over the years knew her as a real "Lady." She was a lady with dignity and a very good sense of humor. She was a genteel and kind.

God has bleased her with each of you. And she will continue to live on through you and the wonderful grandchildren you gave her. Look to Him for your strength. Seek His comfort.

God bless the entire Landers family.

Sincerest condolences,
