“ Paw Paw, thank you for the difference you made in my life. In your presence I always felt safe and loved. You were a gentle giant. Strong and broad shoulders, a strong character, and strong hands on the outside, with such a kind, gentle, and loving heart on the inside. When I think of you, I will always hold onto the look in your big blue eyes, that told us even though you may not remember our names, you knew we were your baby girls, and they showed us clear through to your soul, that kind gentle unending love that was in your heart for us. I know that in our Savior's arms, He has already told you "Well Done my faithful son". Your legacy lives on in those left behind. You will live in my heart, until my time to come home, when I can see you again. I love and miss you, Jenni
