“ I am so sorry for your loss. We have experienced a very similar situation (Joshua was 4) and my prayers are with you during this incredibly difficult time. Words will never be enough.

May you feel God's warmth and draw strength from Him.

“ Hello,
You don't know me, but I know exactly how you feel. I lost my first born son on February 7, 2008 and he was laid to rest at this same funeral home. Your son, Ifeanye attended South Cobb High school with my son, Terrell. I had seen the news and heard of the incident; however, when I brought the newspaper home to show it to my son, Terrell. He was very saddened to hear of what happened to your son. He said mom, this guy was the best and everyone at school liked him; Terrell also said your son sat across the lunch table from him every day. I just wanted to let you know that my son, Terrell, said everyone liked your son and respected him. Your son showed respect to everyone and was a leader. My heart goes out to you, I still miss my son, Antwan he truly knew the meaning of "honor your mother and your father." My prayers are with you, Lean on God for understanding. Without God, I would have lost my mind. Sincerely,
Katherine Tucker
