Just remember its not over its only getting started. Its what he worked his whole life for. Enjoy your rewards in Gods house. Tell Mom and Dad I said hello and I love them. Thanks for the memories and being the man you didn't have to be. R.I.P Uncle Larry and I love you..... Mr.Robert Lee Giles Sr.

“ I grew up at Woodland Hills Baptist Church. Some of my best memories are from that church. I am sadden to hear about his passing but I am certain that he is in All Mighty God's house!!! He said it would be a glorious day! He said that a lot actually. I was saved in that church. I received the best gift of all! His life was impressionable upon mine and I will forever be grateful. I love you Larry and until we meet again!

“ I don't even know where to begin to say how special this Man & his family are to me and my family. There were always Sunday mornings and even sitting down to dinner any night of the week. We were invited into their lives and their home with open arms.

I will never forget things like the all night “Rock-a-Thon” in his home to raise money for youth outings and him encouraging us to play instruments and sing in church. Also the time I got in trouble for playing “Another one bites the dust” on the bass because Travis had taught me how. (no, not during service ) And the time we all got preached to for sitting to close in church. “Day light”, He wanted to be able to look out and see day light on the pews between us. If you were a teenager at Sunny Side Baptist Church you know what I am talking about.

From the young girl I was then to the woman I am today, you have forever left an impression in my heart and my soul and I thank you. Even though you will be missed, go rest high Brother Larry.

“ I can remember as a young teenager visiting the Camp family in cabbage town. And on them Sundays going to hear Mr. Larry Preach. Man could he preach. I have grown to know the family. And from the ripe old age of 15 years old. Is when I first meet them. And now 39 years old. I still love them. Rev Larry has gave me some good preaching when I needed it. Not a talking to. But some good old preaching. Rev. Larry Camp you will be missed dearly sir. You have always made me feel like part of your family. Thanks for the words of wisdom. And the love you shared. We will see you again.

“ Psalms 116:15 says, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."
Larry is truly one of His saints.
My first Pastor and spiritual mentor has fought a good fight, finished "his" course, and kept the faith and has went to receive his reward! There is no doubt Larry had a heavenly welcoming committee of thousands as he entered in to the joys that awaited him. Knowing Larry will be there when my time comes makes me even more at ease to make my crossing.
Carol, I am praying for you and your family. Thank you for your family's devotion to minister to others for so many years. I love all of you.
