

Latisha Joyce Charles

March 15, 2014

My Name is Arlene Donovan Collins many of you know me as Latisha's Aunty Arlene.

Latisha Joyce Charles affectionately known as "Tisha" was born March 27, 1986 in the State of Maryland to Kelvin Charles and Laverne Arnold. She was the affectionate loving mother of Jayden and Kaliyah.

Latisha spent her early childhood years in Maryland where she attended The Christian Academy School. Later she spent time in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands the birthplace of her parents. There she attended All Saints Anglican School before moving to Georgia at 12 years of age. After graduating from South Cobb High School in 2004, she furthered her education at Chattahoochee Technical College pursuing a degree in Nursing.

Latisha was known to many for her big warm smile, her laugh and her generosity. She was willing to do anything for anyone in need. Latisha was full of life. She loved making sure she was well groomed; her hair, her nails and those eye brows were always intact and it was this passion that peaked her curiosity to pursue a career in a cosmetology. However, her stronger passion was for nursing.

She was a good mother. Her children were her life and she made sure she provided for their total well-being. Her precious memory will be cherished by her two children Jayden and Kaliyah, her mother Laverne Arnold, her Father Kelvin Charles Sr., her siblings, Kelvin Jr., Kareem, Kreisha and K'cem, her very loving companion Kelson (Kelo) Battles, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and other dear friends.

We know you are flying with the Angels and singing praises to His Holy Name.

Rest well until we all meet again in the Father's Heavenly Kingdom.

“ My dearest cousin. It still pains me to know that you're no longer with us here in the flesh. I miss you so much man; but FATHER knows best. The last thing I recall you saying to me which is still so fresh in my mind, since we hadn't spoken in a while, was that.

"You had so much to tell me".

I recall in church the pastor saying what Paul said. "I something to tell you, but you cannot bear it now."

Did you mean the same thing???

Love you cousin.

“ To me you are still living, not here on earth with us fleshly human beings but in spirit and everlasting life, no more pain, worries, sickness, sadness, wondering for you anymore. You are where we all pray to be one day, you are with Jesus and Father God! You are surrounded by family long never known but you knew when you laid eyes on them on your arrival in Heaven! So, though I miss your earthly presence, I know that you are with God and that you are happy, fulfilled, at peace, full of joy and wonder of your knew home. I will see you again in heavenly places for we all have and will be called Home. Our goal for us here on earth is to make sure that our Home is where you are, Heaven. Kisses, hugs and love. Until...

“ Latisha could enter a room and illuminate it with her smile, then sustain the light with her kindness. She will be missed. RD

“ Rest in peace, Tisha. I remember you fondly as a child and had hoped to meet you again as an adult. What a nice obituary and video. Healing, love and prayers for your children, parents and other loved ones.
