“ Elizabeth was a blessing with her quiet nature. I always enjoyed her smile whenever Walter was "cutting up". They are both rejoicing in the Lord's presence. My prayers and love to the rest of our family.

“ When I think of Elizabeth I remember a lady who was always kind and sweet. She had such a humble and gentle disposition. She and Walter were always kind and welcomed to me into the family. I am proud to call her my aunt and will miss her. She and Walter both left such a Godly heritage for their children. What a blessing her life was.
