

Lydia Dunn Jones

March 12, 2021

Lydia Dunn Jones, age 69, of Temple passed away suddenly March 12, 2021. Lydia was a member of New Beginnings Church of God in Villa Rica. She was born and grew up in Atlanta, and eventually moved to Mableton where she attended Pebblebrook High School. Lydia met the love of her life, Thomas, at a Church of God youth camp, and they have been married for 51 years. She was a wonderful caregiver to her sons, and a talented sitter for other children. Lydia's love and care have left an impression on over a hundred children, and those children (now adults) still talk about how sweet a lady she was. Lydia was a loving wife, mother, sister, daughter, and friend who will be dearly missed.

Lydia was preceded in death by her parents, William Greer Dunn and Willie Mae Dunn; and her son, William Charles Jones. She is survived by her husband, Thomas Joseph Jones; son, Alan Jones of Temple; grandchildren, Caleb Jones and Olivia Jones, both of Powder Springs; brother, James Dunn; and step-brother, Johnny Bailey.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, March 17, 11:00 AM at Davis-Struempf Chapel with Rev. Chris Jiles officiating. Interment will follow the service at Riverview Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends from 10:00 to 11:00 AM before the service.

Anyone wishing to view the service virtually may do so via a livestream video that will appear on Lydia's tribute page during the listed service time.

“ These are some. Current pics of our journey with the jones. Alan always hid from the camera. they really helped & guided me & my son Luke in the gospel, Lydia with spending personal time with Jesus. doesn't always mean bible time it was with her flowers outside the beauty of the world. my favorite pineapple upside down cake only for my birthday the best!!!. my son never wears shoes or socks. she could not stand them only in the winter by a warm far in the living room puzzlebook days of our lives coffee in her favorite chair. She called Mike my brother gave to her when he moved to S.C. I will miss you so much Lydia. you were always there when nobody was. I could talk to you about anything everything no matter what it was what level. you never said nothing judged me. never hesitate on what thought either. lol I can say that very well rubbed off on me and Luke. I'm so glad you're out of pain now I know it gotten rougher and rougher on you. something I just could not make go away or heal. I always remember you by the song the Rose. I love you let everyone know I said hello .

“ Lydia was my babysitter starting at the age of 5 years old. Over the years, I spent so much time in their home I became one of her family. Charlie and Alan were like the brothers I never had and Tom was a father figure for me. In the years since Charlie died, I haven't spent time with the rest of the family and I regret that, but Lydia and Tom and Alan have remained in my heart as family members and I mourn Lydia's passing. I truly wish I could attend Lydia's funeral, but my work and location prevents me. Please know that my heart mourns and I will miss her. We will all meet again...
