“ Oh to my Godly Mother, How I loved you sooo much. You were my mentor, my friend, my mom, my grandmother, my help, my comforter in sad times. You are what made me the woman I am today. You were there for my most important years, training me to be a wonderful young lady. I miss you so much, but I know I will soon be with you again. I am willing to bet it all that you have way too many crowns and jewels!!! You were my rock!!! There isn't enough paper to write what you were to me....

Until we meet again,
Sonja

“ Dear Maxwell Family,
We are so saddened to hear of your loss. Please accept our deepest condolences and sympathy. 'Miss Mildred' was one of the finest examples of a wonderful Christian lady that could have ever been found.
She was not only our pastor's wife, but also a friend with whom we enjoyed many hours of pleasant company and conversation.
She will be greatly missed by us, also, but we thank God that as long as we have memories, she will remain with us.
God Bless you and keep you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Words will never convey the worth and value of Mildred's life. She was a strong presence in every aspect of her life; in her many jobs as wife, mother, employer, administrator, minister, prayer warrior, and teacher. She was a model, a mentor, and a friend. She ministered to many, many people even outside of her own congregation. Where there was a need she was available. Her wisdom, counsel and quick wit were such a treasure to many of us. Her presence left its mark on our lives and her absence will leave a great void. Our loss is great but Heaven's joy is immeasurable.

“ God has called home a true saint. Mildred was one of the most caring sensitive people I have ever known. Many memories of church outings, vacations and special times of all kinds will always be in my memories. GOD bless all the family as they celebrate Mildred's ascension into the arms of her heavenly father.

“ Oh, there at last,
Life's trails past,
We'll meet our loved once more,
Whose feet have trod
The path of God –
“Not lost, but gone before”.

“WHEN OUTWARD STRENGTH IS BROKEN, FAITH RESTS ON THE PROMISES.
IN THE MIDST OF SORROW, FAITH DRAWS THE STING OUT OF EVERY TROUBLE AND TAKES OUT THE BITTERNESS FROM EVERY AFFLICTION.”
