“ Condolences to Adda and the Gumbar family on the loss of Paul.

I am a friend of Liza's and she was in my class in second grade and third grade. I still think of her and can't believe it has been so long.. the bicentennial year I will never forget that... but I never gave my respects to the family. I did a serach tonite and found this. I remember the last time I remember speaking to Liza was before school and she had a belt on that she showed me. It was really cool that was printed with some type of art or animation. I think we had a class trip that day, also. God Bless You All.

“ I am grateful to have known Paul ... he was a wonderful husband to Adda, a terrific father to his children and grandpa to their children, and a dear friend. I will always remember our threesome adventures looking for coins in New York's Chinatown, narrowly escaping a flash flood in the Dominican Republic, and times we shared with Fefee through tears and laughter.... It is sad that such a caring and loving man has left this earth ... but he made his mark on our world ... and left us all the better. Rest in peace, my dear friend.

“ Oh mighty God. Give me the strength and please show me the way to continue living without my other better half. My husband of 56 years was the pillar of my standing and the mentor of my thinking. I will miss him forever but he will always remain in my memories. With all my love for the rest of my existing life. With love, your wife, Adda

“ I am lucky to have loved him and been loved by him for 28 years. He is the epitome of Grandpa and could fix anything with his smile. I value and honor every memory I have with him and I am so thankful that I have these memories to hold on to forever. Szeretlek, viszontlátásra!

“ "Daddy" the man behind those soulful eyes - the man whose calming demeanor could ease all the tension out of your body - with just a look. "Daddy" will live in our hearts forever. And on this day as I cry -- I reflect -- on what a loving legacy you left behind. I marvel at all the love you shared. And I thank God for your presence in my life. Now and forever --
Amen
Your loving daughter - Rose
