“ What I remember most about Mimi was the many nights I spent the night. She always had everything I wanted to eat and was always there to see one of my living room shows. I love you and miss you Mimi.

“ My first memory of Mrs. Massengale, was at South Cobb when I met Gail. She was so friendly and was always just like one of the girls. Everyone knew Gail's mother!! I always loved spending the night with Gail because her mother was so much fun and always made my stay so special. Since moving to Florida I have not seen her but will always have great memories of a mother and grandmother everyone would love to have. I would like to be there but living in Florida makes it impossible now..I remember the grandkids calling her MiMi so my grandsons call me Mimi now... May God bless you...

“ I first knew Virginia from going to school with Gail. Then, when I started teaching at Lindley Jr. High in 1969, Virginia was one of the main subs there. Though I haven't seen her in forty years, I still remember vividly the the way she lit up whichever room she chose to walk into. Simply, she was just one of the special human beings. Odd that though the light has go out now, the glow will be with us for as long as we live.

“ Gail, thinking of you and your family at this time. It's very difficult when our parents leave us. Please know that when everyone has gone home and your still upset and sad that your friends are around for you to call on.

Lots of Love,
