“ Death is natural as life and all of us must deal with the death of a loved one at some point in our lives. On October 22, 2011, my cousin Wendy expired. As a youth, she inspired me to do right. The mark she left, no one can steal. Today, I've embrace that mark and allowed the tears to flow.....RIP Wendy.

“ My Dear Sister Wendy,
God knew you were tired and it was time for you to rest...
I know exactly where you are right now and I am happy .. you are FINALLY relaxing on a that sunny porch drinking your third glass of Manischewitz with mummy, daddy, Aunt TT, mummy Dar, Niles and Cecil cracking jokes about me & Sybil and the rest of the crazy family! I know you're not alone ... they were waiting for you with open arms.

See you soon big sis
... and for the love of God - save some Manischewitz for me!

“ Though we are scattered far and wide the Atkins tree maintains its majesty. Any broken limb is felt like a Tsunami of pain and longing.

“ The bible tells us that when Jesus comes again death will be no more. It is written in 1 Corinthians 15: 52, 54, 55, "In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall be sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed... So when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" I look forward to that day, friends, when loved ones will be reunited and death will be no more.

“ What matters more than length of life
Is where you'll spend eternity
If you placed your faith in Christ
Then heaven's glory you will see.

So long my dear, safe journey home.

Rest in Peace.

“ I love and miss you, Mommy... It's going to take at least one million women to replace the mother you are... even then, it wouldn't be enough... You are my everything... and I hope to see you again soon... but i will settle for a cameo from you in a dream or two, or three.... million....
